UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

STAFF SERGEANT PETER E. FLORES

Staff Sergeant Peter E. Flores is a Chaplain Assistant, 6th Air Mobility Wing, MacDill Air Force Base, Florida. The Chapel's mission is to provide spiritual support to all military members and their families who are assigned to MacDill through worship services, counseling, unit visitation, and various other programs. SSgt Flores is NCOIC Program Support in which he leads in coordinating outreach events to the base community while handling the chapel's publicity. In addition, he serves as maintenance manager over the 40 year old chapel facility. The facility is utilized for 300 events per month varying from worship services to base functions. Furthermore as security manager, he is responsible for maintaining the clearances of over 100 volunteers to include adherence toward OPSEC guidelines. Various other duties include equipment custodian, maintaining religious literature, and customer service.

SSgt Flores is a native of Modesto, California and has served six years in United States Air Force as an Aircraft Armament Apprentice and now as a Chaplain Assistant. As an aircraft weapons load team member, his assignments included flightline maintenance on the B-1B bomber and F-16 airframes. He also spent two years in armament backshop before cross-training to his current position in June 2011. He has been honored with Senior Airman Below-the-Zone, Support Team Member of the Quarter Award, and Airman of the Month recognition during a deployment. He holds his CCAF degree in both Armament and Chaplain Assistant career fields.
